BIO VIBE TABLE WITH DALLAS

Come experience a Sound journey that you not only hear but feel!

While laying on a massage table, that is equipped with specialized speakers, you will listen to a bio-frequency healing set that is simultaneously playing through the vibrational massage table. This allows the cells in your body to be brought into physical alignment with the frequencies being played, while the brain is being entrained with the music. If wanted you can also have gently guided breathwork for you to follow through with the headphones.
